MOTION TO WITHDRAW ERRONEOUSLY FILED DOCUMENT

Yesterday, 9/15/2005, plaintiff had filed my opposition motion to the Defendant's Motion for Summary judgment as permitted earlier by the court's order on plaintiff's motion for extension of time. The plaintiff's opposition motion, while all the substance are in proper context, however, has been filed without grammatical correction. Please disregard the earlier paper containing only "Memorandum of law as the corrected paper has been filed herewith this motion. The paper was not served on the defendant as the error was discovered before then. All other papers filed with the erroneous (uncorrected memorandum of law are not affected
